

eLearning Support Services and Solutions Panel

An Australian Public Service Commission Programme

All levels

Launch

The Australian Public Service Commission is pleased to introduce the eLearning Support Services and Solutions Panel.

The eLearning Support Services and Solutions Panel has been established to:

- improve access to eLearning service providers with a demonstrated track-record;
- encourage adoption of innovative services; and
- ensure content developed for the eLearning environment is of a high standard and appropriate for accreditation (where required).

The eLearning Support Services and Solutions Panel supplements the Commission's Leadership, Learning and Development Panel and provides services in relation to:

- content development and accreditation;
- content deployment;
- training and support services; and
- consultancy services.

About the Launch

The launch introduces the eLearning Support Services and Solutions Panel and gives agencies the opportunity to meet the members of the panel and discuss their products and services. Participants will have the opportunity to:

- discover the benefits of eLearning for their agency;
- meet the expert panel in an informal setting;
- discuss eLearning options and solutions with the expert panel;
- view demonstrations of eLearning products;
- meet the Commission's Panel administrators; and
- network with representatives from agencies across the public service.

Executive Briefing

The Commission is hosting an Executive Briefing in relation to eLearning prior to the eLearning Support Services and Solutions Panel Launch. For further information on the Executive Briefing please visit our website at www.apsc.gov.au/learn or contact 02 6202 3778.
