

The APS Values and Code of Conduct

An Australian Public Service Commission Program

As an APS employee you have an obligation to uphold and support the APS Values and Code of Conduct, and consistently behave in an honest, ethical and professional manner. This program explores the concepts behind the APS Values and Code of Conduct and how they feature in day-to-day decision making and behaviour.

Program overview

- identifying the legislative connection between the APS and the APS Values and Code of Conduct
- recognising and exploring your responsibilities for upholding and supporting the APS Values and Code of Conduct
- making the APS Values and Code of Conduct an integral part of your day-to-day behaviours

Participant benefits

- increase your awareness of the relevance of the APS Values and Code of Conduct in the contemporary workplace
- explain the relationship between the APS Values and Code of Conduct and appropriate behaviour
- explore challenges posed in upholding and supporting the APS Values and Code of Conduct
- recognise the possible implications of not upholding the APS Values and Code of Conduct

Substitutes, rescheduling and refunds: If you are unable to attend your program we would welcome a substitute at the appropriate level. Rescheduling and refunds (only available for development programs) can be made if your written advice is received at least 30 calendar days prior to the start of the program.

Identifying information: Your information is collected for the purpose of the Public Service Commissioner's functions under the Public Service Act 1999, which include coordinating and supporting APS-wide training and career development opportunities and fostering leadership and reporting on the State of the Service. It will be used for course administration, statistical analysis and evaluation of programs. Some details may be disclosed to your home agency for administrative and statistical/monitoring purposes. Your information may be used to distribute information about Commission-run or sponsored opportunities and to check our other databases. Occasionally mailing lists are made available to bodies with related functions. If you do not wish to have your information used for marketing purposes email aspcmailing@apsc.gov.au. For more details see our privacy statement at <http://www.apsc.gov.au>.

Other conditions: Whilst the Commission aims to deliver programs at the prescribed location(s), using the specified facilitator(s) and/or guest speaker(s) on the date(s) provided in this publication, changes may occur. The Commission will endeavour to provide reasonable notice to participants of these changes. Where a change in location, facilitator(s), guest speaker(s) or date occurs a refund of the program fee may be made at the discretion of the Commission. The Commission accepts no liability for any other losses incurred as a result of changes to the program details.
